Studying and Living on Campus

The campus setting simplifies the day-to-day functions of the university and makes communication very convenient. The individual faculties, administrative offices (e.g. the Student Service Center), refectory, cafeterias, bars and libraries are located closely together. People do not only study, teach and conduct research, but also live here.

The true sense of "university": A sense of community, cooperation and solidarity among the academic staff and students is very present at the University of Augsburg. This close-knit atmosphere benefits all members of the university community.

1.603 international students from

108  countries

Interdisciplinary, Practice-oriented, Responsible

Interdisciplinary cooperation is a part of daily research and teaching at the university, and new forms of teaching are constantly developed across faculties in order to intensify and accelerate learning. This can also be observed within the curricula, which are designed to meet high standards of academic excellence in addition to the practical needs of society and economy. The University of Augsburg places special focus on environmental studies, interdisciplinary health studies, teacher training, materials science, and computer science. The University of Augsburg readily approaches ethical issues and social responsibilities involved in education and research. This is reflected in the university's motto: "Scientia et conscientia".

Facts & Figures

Academic Calendar

The academic year is divided into two terms:

Winter Semester (WiSe)

Lecture Period
Application Deadline

October to March

mid-October – mid-February 15th of July

Summer Semester (SoSe)

Lecture Period
Application Deadline

April to September

mid-April – end of July 15th of January

The application deadlines for exchange programs vary depending on the program. Applicants should therefore contact the responsible exchange coordinator at their home institution.

Further information about dates and deadlines can be found at:
www.uni-augsburg.de/en/studium/organisation-beratung/fristen-und-termine/

Fees

Public universities in Germany do not charge tuition fees as they are tax-funded. However, there are social fees that need to be paid prior to registration:

“Studentenwerk” (student service fees) (SoSe 2022): € 62

Semester ticket for public transport (SoSe 2022): € 65,50

Up-to-date information can be found at:

<https://www.uni-augsburg.de/de/studium/organisation-beratung/organisation-und-formales/semesterbeitraege/>

Language of Instruction/ Language Requirements

The courses in Augsburg are mainly taught in German. Excellent knowledge of German (at least level B2, but level C1 for most courses, CEF) is an admission requirement.

Exceptions are made for English-taught programs, some Master programs and participants of exchange programs. For more detailed language requirements and English-taught classes/programs, please refer to our website:
<https://www.uni-augsburg.de/en/portal/internationals/>

Grading System

Students' assignments and exams are evaluated according to the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS). Additionally, the German grading system is used for some subjects.

For detailed information please check:

<https://www.uni-augsburg.de/en/portal/internationals/grading-scale/>

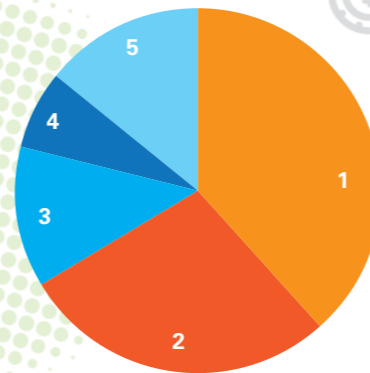

German Grades:

German Course Grade	Interpretation	US Grade Equivalent
1,0; 1,3	Very Good	A
1,7; 2,0; 2,3	Good	B
2,7; 3,0; 3,3	Satisfactory	C
3,7; 4,0	Sufficient	D
above 4,0	Failed	F

Cost of Living

The estimated cost of living per semester for an international student in Germany is around € 5,166 for 6 months. Each semester, students have to pay a social fee of € 127,50 (SoSe 2022).

Monthly Expenses (estimated)

1 Accommodation (dorm or private)	€ 209–400
2 Food	€ 200
3 Health insurance	€ 105
4 Textbooks & stationery	€ 50
5 Miscellaneous	€ 100–200

Accommodation

Students of the University of Augsburg can choose between many types of accommodation. The university itself does not provide any halls of residence; nevertheless, it cooperates very closely with the organization "Studentenwerk", which manages five dorms in Augsburg.

Other organizations, such as Kolping and BLLV, offer accommodation as well. For detailed information please check:
www.studentenwerk-augsburg.de/accommodation

In general, however, students in Augsburg live in shared apartments (usually not furnished). The rental prices are relatively low in comparison for example to Munich. The internet (e.g. www.wg-gesucht.de), or the university's bulletin boards are great sources for finding shared apartments.

Course Offerings & Services for International Students

German Language Courses

The university offers German language courses from level A1 to C2 (Common European Framework (CEF)). Levels A1 to B2 are for exchange students and degree seeking students in English-taught programs only.

www.uni-augsburg.de/en/organisation/einrichtungen/sz/fremdsprachenangebot/deutsch-als-fremdsprache/

Study Preparation Course

Preliminary classes at the beginning of the winter semester to prepare degree seeking students for their studies and life in Augsburg. The courses are taught in German. Two types of courses are offered: a two weeks course and a three day compact course. The courses are taught in German and a B2 level of German is an admission requirement. More information can be found at the following website:

www.uni-augsburg.de/en/portal/internationals/abschluss/study-preparation-course/

Intercultural Courses

Several classes are taught from an intercultural perspective. The International Office offers these classes regularly for its exchange students. The goal is to help students understand the German culture better, to enrich their daily life in Germany, and to improve their studies at the University of Augsburg. It is possible to receive credits for these courses.

Excursions & Events

Field trips, "Orientation Days" and intercultural evenings are just some of the events to help international students get in touch with other international as well as German students. Participating in these trips and events also helps them get to know Augsburg, Germany, and other cultures better.

<https://www.uni-augsburg.de/en/portal/internationals/interkulturelles/>

Tutor Program

Organized by the International Office, this program, this program is aimed at helping international students settle into life at the University of Augsburg and in Germany. Student tutors support international students during their stay in Augsburg in all matters concerning their studies and everyday life.

www.uni-augsburg.de/en/portal/internationals/interkulturelles/tutorenprogramm/

Language Tandem

Students with an interest in improving their foreign/German language skills can register for the language tandem program which is organized by the International Office. We will allocate you to a partner who is a native speaker of the language you want to improve and who is interested in learning your native language.

Facilities for Studies & Leisure

Catering

The University of Augsburg has a large canteen ("Mensa") and two cafeterias. The Mensa is open Monday to Friday from 11 a.m. to around 2 p.m. and provides around 15 different dishes a day at very reasonable prices (€1.70 – €3.50). In the cafeterias, students can sip their first morning cup of coffee or tea, cappuccino or cocoa from 7:30 a.m. on. In summer, students can take their food and drinks outside and enjoy them on the terrace.

www.studentenwerk-augsburg.de/food-drink/canteens-cafeterias/augsburg/uni-augsburg/

Library

The University of Augsburg provides a well-equipped library. Students have access to the main library as well as three departmental libraries. Furthermore, they can search the catalogue and reserve materials online. If necessary, students also have access to the Bavarian Library Network which enables them to order books from libraries all over Bavaria and the rest of Germany.

www.uni-augsburg.de/de/organisation/bibliothek/

Computer Center

In several CIP-Pools on campus more than 100 PCs with internet access are available for all students. Campus-wide printing facilities are also provided.

www.uni-augsburg.de/de/organisation/einrichtungen/rz/

Sports Programs

The University of Augsburg offers a wide range of athletics/gym classes. More than 80 different kinds of sport can be practiced by all students. The courses take place during the semester at a very low price.

hsa.sport.uni-augsburg.de

Language Center

Students have the possibility to learn many different languages during their studies, free of charge. The Language Center offers courses in English, Spanish, Arabic, Chinese, Russian, Japanese, French and many more. Most courses are offered at different levels according to the Common European Framework (CEF).

www.uni-augsburg.de/en/organisation/einrichtungen/sz/

Music

Students interested in music have many possibilities to either listen to or play music themselves. The team of the Collegium Musicum offers a variety of bands, orchestras and choirs such as The Gospel Choir, The Chamber Choir, The University Orchestra, The Uni Big Band and many other musical ensembles. Furthermore, the Leopold-Mozart-Center offers several projects and events beside music studies.

outdoor activities

Leisure outside Augsburg

Augsburg benefits from its proximity to the Alps, which means that nature lovers can enjoy skiing, mountain biking, hiking and any other outdoor activities. Water lovers can enjoy the nearby lakes such as the Ammersee, Starnberger See, or Lake Constance. Another sight attracting many international tourists is the famous Neuschwanstein Castle. And those who want to enjoy a traditional German festivity should not miss the Oktoberfest in Munich, which is located only 60 kilometers away.

"I am thrilled to be here:
the organization, lectures, infrastructure, professors, campus,
and the city – everything is at its best.
This perfect surrounding enables me to concentrate on my studies and to enjoy life at the same time."

Dmitrijs Starcevs, Latvia,
B.Sc. Global Business Management

"The particularity of the University of Augsburg does not only consist of the green campus with its sculptures and the small lake, but also of the variety of courses.
It is definitely one of the most multicultural educational institutions
I got to know in Germany."

Sabina Jukic, Bosnia,
M.A. German Language and Literature

"The University of Augsburg has lead me to an exciting and new chapter of my life I will look back fondly.
An amazing chapter that has been filled with the green campus, great and welcoming people, and a very supportive academia."

Annisa Dwishella, Indonesia,
B.A. Media and Communication

"Not only did I receive a good academic education but I also enjoyed the charm and beauty of one of the oldest cities in Germany and experienced the best Bavaria has to offer."

Ivan Marić, Croatia,
M.A. Social Sciences: Conflicts
in Politics and Society
